- x. CLAT 2026 Admit Card

Note:

The Specially Abled Persons (Persons with Benchmark Disabilities) should submit the Disability Certificate issued by the Competent Authority, i.e., District / State Medical Board during the last five years. The candidates will be considered under the said category only when the percentage of disability is 40% and above. Acceptance of their Disability Certificate by any other CLAT participating University would not automatically entitle them for admission under the said category at NALSAR.

3. Candidates are also required to submit the duly filled Undertaking Form-1 and any other applicable Undertaking forms 2/3/4/5/6/7 on the CLAT portal. Alternatively the same may be also sent by email to admissions2026@nalsar.ac.in. The undertaking forms are available on the university website- www.nalsar.ac.in
4. If any discrepancy is noticed in a candidate's documents, university will inform the candidate about the discrepancy and direct them to upload the rectified or missing documents immediately on the CLAT portal or to submit by email to admissions2026@nalsar.ac.in. Only after submission of the rectified or missing documents, the university will confirm the provisional admission of the candidate on the CLAT portal. In case of non-submission of required documents, admission may be rejected by the University on the CLAT portal stating the reason of discrepancy in the documents.
5. If any discrepancy or mismatch relates to the candidate's eligibility for inclusion in a particular reservation category at NALSAR, University will reject the admission stating the reason. As informed by CLAT consortium the candidate will be considered for admission in subsequent rounds of the Admission Counselling Process.
6. Candidates should remit the fees as given below to NALSAR University of Law latest by April 24, 2026 for admission. The online link for payment of fee will be made available on the University website in the first week of April:
