Memorandum of Understanding between Government of Telangana and NALSAR University of Law

The Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) has been entered into on 9th September 2014, at Hyderabad between

1. Government of Telangana (state government or government)
2. NALSAR University of Law (NALSAR)

The state government is committed to develop the city of Hyderabad as a top notch technology destination. As part of this effort, the government is setting up a world class incubator, called T-Hub, to promote the start-up ecosystem in the state. The government is looking to collaborate with industry and premier educational institutes in the region to set up this incubator.

The parties have agreed to collaborate in setting up the T-Hub, which will be the pioneering centre for start-up and entrepreneurship activities in the country. It is proposed that T-Hub will come into existence over 2 phases.

Towards this end, the parties have agreed to enter into this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) to define the nature of their co-operation:

1. NALSAR shall provide all necessary support for the drafting, filing and protecting created/used intellectual property rights of the incubatees of T-Hub whenever deemed necessary.
2. NALSAR shall help in making Hyderabad IPR capital of India and taking all the necessary steps to achieve this goal by facilitating alliances with reputed national and global institutes of Intellectual Property Law. It shall advise the government on policy formulations to create a conducive legal environment for the start-ups.
3. NALSAR shall extend all possible assistance to T- Hub and its incubates to identify and formalize geographic indications, industrial designs and trademarks that can have and will need legal protection in order to add value when used by start-ups for commercial purposes.

Professor of Law & Registrar
NALSAR UNIVERSITY OF LAW

4. NALSAR shall establish the "LEARNING CENTRE FOR TECH BASED START-UPS" supported by the Government of Telengana to facilitate cutting edge research in all the relevant areas of law relevant to start-ups. The centre in addition to research and training would organize global conferences, seminars, deliberations by eminent global and national business leaders regarding technology licencing, technology transfer, technology commercialization, incubation facilities, start-ups, and the law thereof.
5. NALSAR in collaboration with the Government shall especially facilitate intensive training of the incubatees of T- Hub in areas of drafting of contracts, lease agreements, company formation, company registration, industrial laws, taxation laws etc.
6. NALSAR shall also endeavour to draft various teaching modules involving legal inputs that can be used for training entrepreneurs at T-Hub and other satellite centres involved in facilitating tech based start-ups.
7. NALSAR shall facilitate the formation of law based start – ups at T – Hub which shall provide in- house legal solutions to the start-ups.
8. NALSAR in collaboration with the Government shall especially work towards creating a conducive business and legal environment for nurturing university spinoffs, a potential that has not been explored yet.
9. NALSAR shall provide guidance to the incubatees of T – Hub in areas of corporate governance and CSR.
10. NALSAR shall enlist the support of key faculty in the areas of law, entrepreneurship and marketing to create an enabling ecosystem for the T-Hub and its incubatees.
11. NALSAR in collaboration with the Government shall jointly organize special events like 'techno-preneur summit' to showcase the spirit of tech based entrepreneurs.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Rampant Singh', is written below the list of points.

12. NALSAR will also help to mentor, coach and counsel start-ups in T-Hub during the pre-seed, seed and the early stages of the incubates.
13. NALSAR shall endeavour to provide student interns for T-Hub incubator and the incubatee start-ups. NALSAR would also enlist the support of its alumni for the T-Hub incubator.
14. NALSAR's students, alumni and staff will have special access to T-Hub and its events

This MoU will be followed by a more detailed agreement specifying the roles and responsibilities for both the parties within the next 90 days.

Memorandum of Understanding

BETWEEN

NALSAR University of Law, Hyderabad

AND

Azim Premji University, Bangalore

Dated: February 24, 2021

This Memorandum of Understanding ('MOU') is being made on February 12, 2021 by and between the following two higher education institutions:

The NALSAR University of Law, represented through Prof. (Dr.) Faizan Mustafa (Vice-Chancellor) and located at 'Justice City', Shamceerpet, Medchal District, Telangana (PIN 500078);

And

The Azim Premji University, represented through Mr. Manoj P. (Registrar) and located at Bikkannahalli Main Road, Sarjapura, Karnataka (PIN 562125).

It is hereby agreed by and between the partner institutions as follows:- :

1. Objectives

'NALSAR University of Law' and 'Azim Premji University' resolve to collaborate through the periodic organisation of conferences, seminars and teacher training programmes in areas of common interest. The scope of the collaboration may also extend to the sharing of personnel and material resources for the purpose of teaching and research activities as per mutually agreed terms.

2. Scope of Work

In pursuance of the objectives stated above, the partner institutions can collaborate in the following forms:

(I) To organise an annual conference devoted to a review of significant developments in the field of Indian Constitutional Law during the previous calendar year. The schedule of the conference may be decided on a year-to-year basis after accounting for academic calendars, the availability of suitable resource-persons and logistics for holding this conference. The organisational efforts shall also involve the student editorial team of the 'Law and Other Things' Blog at NALSAR University of Law and the students and faculty of the LL.M. programme at Azim Premji University.

(II) To periodically organise thematic conferences, research-based seminars, invited lectures and teacher training programmes in areas of common interest. These programmes can also be directed at participants from other Universities and the general public.

(III) To share personnel for the purpose of teaching courses at the undergraduate, postgraduate and doctoral level. This may ordinarily be done by engaging the chosen faculty members as 'Visiting Faculty' at the respective partner institution. Such arrangements for discharging short-term teaching responsibilities can ordinarily extend up to a semester.

(IV) To share personnel for the purpose of providing research supervision to students enrolled in postgraduate and doctoral programmes. This may ordinarily be done by appointing chosen faculty members as 'External Supervisors' for students enrolled in the respective partner institution.

(V) To design and implement structured research projects in areas of common interest that may yield publications in the form of books, reports, scholarly articles, review essays and instructional materials among other categories.

3. Duration

This Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) shall be effective from July 1, 2021 and shall initially be valid for a period of five years, that is till June 30, 2026. After the completion of this period, the working of this MoU shall be reviewed and the partner institutions may choose to extend it for another period of five years and subsequent terms of the same length.

4. Finances

The expenditure planned during an academic year shall be presented before the appropriate authorities for prior approval, in advance of the proposed dates of the activities contemplated by this MoU. Reimbursements, based on actual expenditure, may be provided based on corroborative documentation submitted by the faculty members, staff and students involved in the organisation of the respective activities. Advance payments may only be released based on specific reasons recorded in writing and with the prior approval of the officers responsible for finances at both institutions.

5. Co-ordination Responsibilities

'NALSAR University of Law' and 'Azim Premji University' will be jointly responsible for the implementation of this MoU.

'NALSAR University of Law' designates the Director of its 'Centre for Constitutional Law, Public Policy and Good Governance' as responsible for coordinating and monitoring the activities contemplated under this MoU.

'Azim Premji University' designates the Director of its 'School of Policy and Governance' as responsible for coordinating the activities contemplated under this MoU.

At the end of every academic year, the respective faculty members holding the above-mentioned positions shall jointly prepare an annual report of the activities organised as per the terms of this MoU and this report shall be submitted to the respective Vice-Chancellors at both institutions.

For and on behalf of the
NALSAR University of Law, Hyderabad.

Dr. Faizan Mustafa
(Vice-Chancellor)

For and on behalf of the

Hi Deepika

Warm Greetings from DoMS, NALSAR!

As per discussion, we would like to invite you for an online talk as detailed below:

Topic: Career Mapping Post MBA: What you need to do today?

The objective of the session: To understand--

- 1- When should I start thinking of my Career path post-MBA
- 2- What kind of market-relevant skills should I pick up during the MBA
3. What kind of mindset to be developed for a successful career
4. How do you stand out among the competition
5. Soft skills and technical skills Vs. Soft skills or technical skills

7. Special Tips for Finance students

- What kind of skills they need to work in order to make an entry in the finance domains
- What kind of additional courses/projects they need to work in order to make an entry in the finance domains
- What kind of CTC they can expect.
- How open they should be for Job Location.
- What else if not Finance. (Sales Profile as an Options)

8. Special Tips for all students

- Importance of networking and well LinkedIn profile.
- Importance of being open in terms of profile, CTC, and Location
- Importance of MS Office (Excel, Word, PPT). can they better learn during MBA only?
- Importance of Sales Profile as an option (if not Finance, HR, and Operations.)

It will also be our pleasure to hear from you about your journey as an MBA graduate from DoMS, NALSAR.
