CALL FOR PAPERS (Volume I, Issue I)

NALSAR-IAMC ADR Journal | CALL FOR PAPERS | VOLUME I ISSUE I

ABOUT NALSAR

The National Academy of Legal Studies and Research ('NALSAR') was established in 1998 by a Statute of the State of Andhra Pradesh. Since its inception, NALSAR has been consistently counted amongst the top law schools of the country and strives to implement varied strategies to create a vibrant scholastic environment. In light of the same, NALSAR has also continually endeavored to push legal scholarship towards new paradigms by fostering a strong culture of legal journals.

ABOUT IAMC

The International Arbitration and Mediation Centre, Hyderabad ('IAMC'), a first-of-its-kind, focuses on assisting in the resolution of commercial and legal conflicts by providing efficient, cost-effective, and impartial methods.

The Centre provides both Arbitration and Mediation services, by combining first-class client service, cutting-edge technology, top-notch facilities and highly experienced arbitrators and mediators to provide tailored, in-person, virtual and hybrid conflict resolution services.

ABOUT THE JOURNAL

The NALSAR-IAMC ADR Journal ('The Journal') is the result of the budding relationship & joint efforts between NALSAR and IAMC. The Journal primarily endeavors to facilitate the development of scholarship in the fields of Arbitration and Alternate Dispute Resolution.

In furtherance of the same, the Journal aims to provide a robust platform for legal minds all over the country to showcase their critical thinking and analytical abilities in order to positively contribute to the emergent discourse surrounding Arbitration and Alternate Dispute Resolution.

In light of the above, the Editorial Board is pleased to invite submissions for Volume I, Issue I of the Journal.
