- Note: Assigning different base price was done purely for the purpose of convenience and the values have no other connotations.

SPECIFIC RULES

1. The team captains will be provided with a list of players in order to keep track.
2. Every effort will be made to ensure fair auctions by the OC.
3. A team cannot bid for two goalkeepers before each team has one.
4. It is compulsory for each team to buy at least one goalkeeper from the list in the first round itself.
5. The set containing 5 Marquee Players will be the first set to be auctioned.
6. The goalkeeper set consisting of 8 goalkeepers will be the second set to be auctioned.
7. The remaining sets will be auctioned at random through chit picking.
8. There will be a second round of mini auctions consisting of all unsold players.

For your reference, the number of players in each pool is below:

Pool	Number of Players
1	12
2	30
3	70

DRAFTING RULES

1. All players that remain unsold after the second round of auctions, will be added to the 'Draft List'.
2. The OC will take a call on whether any 1st year LLB players should be added to the auction pool. Else, by default all 1st year LLB players will be a part of the Draft List.
3. As when IPM 1st Years join campus, the OC will take a call on how to add any potential players to the teams.
4. The team with the highest remaining purse will get the first pick in Round 1 of Drafting.
5. In case of equal amount remaining between teams, a coin toss will decide who gets preferential pick.
6. After the 1st Round of Drafting, the captains will pick chits to determine who picks first.
7. It will be made sure that every registered player gets selected in a team.
8. It is mandatory for a captain to pick a player during a drafting round unless expressly barred by the OC.

OTHER RULES

1. Captains should note that not all players who registered may play. The OC has done its best to confirm availability of all registered players.
2. The captain shall be required to appoint a vice-captain at the end of the auction.
3. After a particular bid is made, the auctioneer will state the bid, repeat it, and wait for a minimum of 5 seconds before confirming the purchase with a gavel.
4. Teams may be barred from participating in a particular round of Drafting to ensure that all teams have an equal number of players.
5. The total purse value remaining and number of players in the squad will be announced regularly to avoid confusion.
6. Post auctions, the OC reserves the right to make public information regarding the auctions that it deems relevant.
7. The OC reserves the right to make changes to these rules or add other rules as may be required.

NOTE: Any discriminatory/disrespectful remarks targeting players in the auction pool or draft list will strictly not be tolerated. Any issues that the captains may have must be respectfully communicated to the OC. The captains are required to cooperate with the decisions of the OC. In case of disciplinary action, the OC reserves the right to interact only with the person identified as Vice Captain.
